Description

Millefleurs, carpet from Kirman or Kerman, Iran around 1980 in kork wool, finely hand knotted, measuring 157 cm wide by 250 cm long for a density of approximately 450,000 knots per m2, in magnificent condition.

Very soft and fine kork wool is the wool taken from under the neck and belly of lambs.

The Kirman is often decorated with flowers and most of the time has a medallion that stands out against a plain background.

The motifs of the medallion are repeated in the border and the four spandrels (corners).

Some of these rugs also feature large animal scenes.

Our model, a kirman raver or kirman lavar is from the town of Raver north of Kirman, he is just a seedling of flowers of great delicacy and great beauty.

Kerman is the largest city in southeastern Iran and is the capital of the province of the same name.

The reputation of the Kirman rugs and the raver is due to the excellence of the "Ostads", these designers of cartoons of incredible skill, who knew how to keep the sense of the tradition of these great Persian rugs.

The deep harmony of the colors results from a perfect dosage which testifies to the great creativity of the Kirman craftsmen.

This piece is in pristine condition, and has been professionally and environmentally cleaned.
