Description

Jeanne Ravel known as TOLEV (1913- 2004)
"Bonnières" / landscape and surroundings
Watercolor painting on paper in the style of abstraction in the 1950s Contemporary and resolutely modern painting with colors that are both soft and present. Tolev was the wife of the Painter Daniel Ravel (1915-2002). Himself in perpetual quest for a balance between order and disorder. Painting on paper signed lower right of the work. Painting alone: 38 x 33 cm This work is under glass framed by a past everywhere and a large golden strip.
