Description

Iranian rug from the Arak region, wool, cotton warp and weft, 1960-70. Very good state. Strong, durable and comfortable mat.

Beautiful sarough with traditional pattern. A blue and ivory medallion stands out against a red background. Four spandrels are in harmony with a wide navy blue border surrounded by various smaller borders (herati*, göls ...). One can appreciate on the whole of the carpet, the flowers, the scrolls and the arabesques which make the particularity of many sarough.

*Border herati (or samovari): this pattern consists of small flowers (göls) represented on the borders that surround the carpet. It is found on the majority of Iranian carpets.
