Description

White background with printed decoration enhanced in polychromy with the "PANTHÉON" with a garland of vines and gold fillet on the edge. Dimension(s): Diam. 24.3 cm Condition: INTACT Period: EMPIRE Stone-Coquerel and Legros are well known for their printed pieces in fine earthenware from Creil. They also made, but much more rarely, impressions on porcelain. These prints are always of very good quality, with themes of mythological or biblical scenes and more rarely on Parisian monuments like this plate. The border of this plate is typical of the Manufacture of STONE COQUEREL and LEGROS (see the photos of the plate representing "Le Chateau de RASTADT" which has the same border as well as the mark of STONE-COQUEREL and LEGROS".
