

Mantel Clock By Toroni In Paris

3 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 34 cm

Diameter : 7 cm

Height : 36 cm

Description

This striking mantel clock is a remarkable example of the Empire style, a period renowned for its grandeur and classical inspirations. The clock masterfully blends materials and craftsmanship, creating a visually captivating and functionally versatile piece.

At the heart of the design is a sculptural group featuring a seated female figure, likely representing a muse or a goddess. This elegant figure elevates the clock with its artistic grace, adding sophistication and a sense of timeless beauty to the piece.

The clock face, crafted from enamel, is framed by a decorative surround that may feature motifs inspired by Greek or Roman architecture, enhancing the classical aesthetic. The base of the clock is adorned with finely detailed elements,

Dealer

Royal Antique

Proudly delivering art and elegance.

Tel : +48 722090633

Mobile : +48 722090633 (WhatsApp)

Warszawa 02-681

such as acanthus leaves and other classical embellishments, contributing to its refined and opulent appearance.

Signed "Toronl à Paris," the clock bears the mark of its French origin, identifying its maker and further underscoring its authenticity and craftsmanship.

This clock would be a prestigious addition to any discerning collector's home, bringing an air of historical elegance and sophistication to any interior.