Description

Beautiful cracked earthenware sculpture depicting a young woman in the 1920s, the famous Roaring Twenties.

* Circa1930 ****

The female subject is represented kneeling; she is half-naked, her body slightly veiled with a drape of fabric, busy creating a floral composition presented in a basket.

She wears short boyish haircuts as was the fashion at that time.

This statuette is in very good condition and has no notable defects.
