Description

Iranian carpet from the Arak region, kurk wool, cotton warp and weft, 1960. Very good condition.

Beautiful patina for this traditional and timeless sarouk in dozar format. A lot of attention in its realization reminiscent of the American sarouks. On the field of the carpet, elaborate floral motifs surround a discreet medallion. A border worked on an ivory background, with floral motifs, frames this elegant sarouk. This sarouk shows the refined work and sensitivity of Persian weavers. Sarouks, known as "American sarouks", were exported to the USA for American demand. They had the particularity of having a thicker pile.
