Description

Charles-Jean Aguerregaray (1859-1936): "Farms in the Basque countryside", watercolor 24 X 36 cm mounted by a marie-louise in a recent baguette frame 38 X 49 cm. Circa 1920.

Although a grocer by profession for a living, he exhibited at all the regional Salons as well as at the Salon des Artistes Français in Paris and left us many works on the Basque Country, both in oil and in oil. 'watercolor. Very spirited and brushed with large strokes, this watercolor wonderfully renders the Basque Country with its hilly landscapes adorned with farmhouses with red roofs. Signed less legibly lower right. See also our "Basque landscape with farms" Do not hesitate to ask us for photos or additional information by email or telephone.
