Description

Charming executive period bedside table with cherry wood curtain that can form a selette. it opens with a drawer, a curtain and a front door releasing shelves.

the facade is adorned with two symmetrical directory pilasters. it rests on a plinth.

it is in solid cherry wood with a walnut-coloured waxed patina.

the backs are in oak.

no attack by xylophagous insects but preventive treatment with xylophene for safety in the workshop. very beautiful waxed patina.

original pegging.

in perfect working order including the curtain.

very practical and easy to place, at the bedside,
